Business Model

1. Customer segments:

   For every person who works in educational organizations, Organizations that need a scheduling system, and schools such as Professors, An assistant teacher, engineers, head teacher and teacher

2. value proposition:

   This system helps the concerned authorities in organizing schedules and scheduling appointments in an easier and less complicated way. It is easy to know the capacity of accommodating places for people, determining free time, and it also determines the number of working hours allowed per week for each teacher and the number of academic hours allowed per day.

3. Channels:

   Website

4. Customer relationship:

   Constant contact with the organization, provide suggestions to the organization in developing the system

5. revenue streams:

   Revenues from imposing rental fees for a specified period or purchasing system ownership rights

6. Key resources:

   web server, programmers

7. Key activities:

   Percentage organization and scheduling of appointments organization

8. Key partners:

   IT Engineer, Programmer and Cybersecurity Engineer

9. Costs structure:

   Server hosting coast, the maintenance and functioning of host, personnel costs, develop the system

Project Name: Tables For Modern Academy

Professor Name: Dr/Fouda

Subject: Project-1

Team Members

Mohamed Sameh Mahmoud Ahmed Section: 3 (17493) ms627673@gmail.com	01094555787	• Full Stack Developer • Team Leader
Ziad Abd El-hakeem El Saied Section: 3 (18770)	01140612202	Database Administration
Ahmed Masoud Ibrahim ElKholy Section:3 (18258) elkholyahmed1997@gmail.com	01020183272	Database Administration
Afify Abdlghfar Afify Section:2 (18885)	01143532429	Database Administration
Ahmed Hassan AbdlElwhab ELgrwani Section:3 (17696)	01092694542	Database Administration
Sief Eldin Hany Mohamed Ibrahim Section: 2 (18693) siefhane@gmail.com	01096491646	Front End Developer